EVERY true American citizen wants an honest vote and a fair count.

THE editor of the Cash-Book is very much afraid that the democratic party will be reorganized.

BRO. MACK cannot convince the rank and file of the democratic party that free silver is not a dead issue.

THERE is one class of people who, we think, impose on the county court. They are those who each term of court, ask for temporary relief. Some are deserving, while many are not. If people have to ask for temporary relief each time the court meets they should be sent to the poor farm, the place provided for that kind of people. We suggest that the court at its next regular meeting offer to send to the poor farm those who have been asking temporary relief for a year or more and see how many will refuse to go and find some way to live without the court's aid. It is right for the county to take care of the poor, and for that purpose we have a fine poor farm. Those who are at the poor farm, crazy and demented, should be sent to the asylum, and only those kept on the farm who can work and have some degree of care for self, but are not competent to manage affairs for themselves in order to make a good living. By not using our poor farm for insane and lunatics, it would be a more desirable place for the poor and unfortunate to go to. In other words it would make people have a higher estimate of what a poor farm is for.

GORDONVILLE.

Fine rain, but still very dry. Gordonville is still on the boom. Our city dads are in favor of expansion. So may it be. Ed Kerstner is visiting in town for a few days.

Chas. Hows and wife are visiting at George Hunt's, Gordonville's tonorial artist.

We are in the city limits now and I guess we will have to part our hair in the middle.

Someone will have to tell what made certain ones look, talk and walk so funny last Saturday.

There were no services at our church Sunday, and as a result all went to other churches and to the wedding.

H. W. Bangert is having his storefront painted and a new sign put up, which helps the looks of the place. Bangert is headquarters for watermelons.

Look out, Mr. Millers. If you don't make better flour the women folks will give you a blowing up. The Never Dies are dead. They departed this season's life with the Honors. They wouldn't have lost a game in the whole season if they could have helped it, and Willie is still in the mill.

The well digging fever has somewhat abated since the rain. Albert street is to be graded, graveled and put in city style.

AMOS AXLETREE.

CRUMP.

As I haven't seen anything in the paper lately from our little town I will drop a few lines.

Cross Roads is still on the boom.

We were blessed with a fine rain lately, for which we all feel thankful.

Mrs. Mollie Ervin is quite sick at this writing.

The infant son of George and E. Rhodes died August 9.

It is rumored that John Statler has rented a large farm. Look out, Mr. Wiseman, you may lose your girl.

The young folks of our town visited the picnic at Whitewater Saturday. All reported a nice time.

Circus Hosca and wife left Saturday for Bridges, Mo., where they think they will make their future home.

Bill Simmons and Jim Lancaster have got some bran new clothes.

There is to be a picnic near Crump August 24. Music by the Ervin string band, and also the Morley brass band is expected to be there.

Sunday-school is progressing nicely at this place in care of Mrs. S. R. Arnold and Dell Ervin. Denn Ervin looks lonesome. He has lost his heart.

Mrs. Theresa Poston, of Fredericktown, visited parents and friends at Crump last week.

Arly Hosea got his arm thrown out of place. Look out, Arly, don't ride too fast.

SUBSCRIBER.

There is a great deal of sickness here at present. Mrs. Mollie Ervin has a severe fever.

About a week ago Edward Jones' little girl, Ethel, fell off one of his horses. It was not thought that she was seriously hurt, but during the night she died very suddenly. Ethel was a very bright and industrious little girl. May her little friends and schoolmates, and especially her parents and relatives, console themselves with the thought that what is their loss is Heaven's gain.

Carrie Andrews is up from Commerce visiting her mother for a short time. She will soon leave for Farmington where she will spend the coming year in school.

The small-pox scared the picnics to death the fourth of July, but they have caught their breath and are coming since then.

Corn is going to do some better since the rain than most people thought it would.

The factory at Whitewater runs about half the time on account of lack of water.

GLENER.

DERAY.

Not seeing anything from our town for some time I thought I would call around.

Health is good at this writing. Everybody seems to be busy at work. Of course they are trying to get the ready cash.

Mrs. W. J. Smith's mother and sister, of Fredericktown, were seen on our streets last Sunday.

J. M. Baxter and daughter, of Charleston, are members of our town.

We had the pleasure of meeting some of the Allenville belles on our streets last Sunday.

Wm. Turner, one of our car repairers disappeared a few days ago. Don't weep, Flora, he will return in a few days and all will be well.

Oh, yes, the young folks of Deray and Allenville enjoyed a social hop at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Burch on the night of the 9th.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Tanksley, on the 9th, a bouncing big girl. Father and daughter are getting along nicely.

Mrs. Miller has charge of the yellow boarding house of this city. We welcome all such as Mrs. Miller to our town.

As news is scarce this week I will close with the best wishes to the HERALD. HONEST JACK.

MILLERSVILLE.

Rey. Devault, of Marble Hill, has been preaching at the Union church here to appreciative audiences every evening for the past week.

Picnicing and base ball playing is the general order of amusement these warm days.

A large assembly meet at Welker's fair grounds Saturday and spent a social day eating and drinking ice cold lemonade. About the funniest scene was a single hand dance by Uncle John Mayfield, aged 65 years, at the conclusion of which he made a frog-leap from the platform over the shoulders of a fleshy lady, much to her great surprise, and the merriment of many bystanders. Uncle John was an expert dancer in his palmy days.

Dr. Horn, Mrs. Wash Gladish, Mrs. D. J. Hendricks and Uncle George H. Miller are attending the Mississippi Valley Spiritual Camp meeting at Clinton, Iowa.

Mrs. Henry F. Steele, of Bloomfield, is visiting relatives in our town and vicinity.

Aunt Catherine Snider, of Jackson, has been visiting her children and grand children, Mrs. E. S. Miller and Mrs. Maude Snider and their families for several days.

Our school board has treated the school building to a new coat of paint and other valuable repairs.

Jeff Stearns, one of our energetic merchants, has repaired and repainted his store buildings.

Bob Kinder, a substantial farmer of our community, is making some valuable improvements on his residence.

Esquire George W. Cobble finished threshing last week and has hitched his engine to his saw outfit and will commence making lumber this week. BARKIS.

REASONS

WHY

ADVERTISE

1. Because.
2. Because it pays.
3. Because all first-class Jewelers do.
4. Because I'm not too stingy to do so.
5. Because I'm not ashamed of my goods and work.
6. Because I have the largest stock of Jewelry in the county, and at reasonable prices.
7. Because it pays to let folks know what you've got.
8. Because I cater to the intelligent class, and they read the papers.
9. Because I can talk to more people through the papers than through my mouth.
10. Because a life-time experience in the Jewelry business places me in a position to buy and sell cheaper than one not an exclusive Jeweler.

Yours for business,
